5. CHAMPIONSHIP POINTS

Points and standings are awarded based on each battle that has a declared winner and cumulative season points will determine the championship order. The 3rd place in the overall competition is decided based on the highest bracket position of the two losing competitors in the Top 4.

5.1.COMPETITION POINTS

Seeding bracket- every battle that has a declared winner will be awarded 3 points.

Main Event bracket- Every battle that has a declared winner will be awarded 10 points.

Rookie of the Year will be awarded to the highest-ranking 1st year driver in each series, Formula Drift PRO and PROSPEC

5.2.CHAMPIONSHIP RANKING TIE BREAKING

If a tie occurs in the points standings- the tie breaker will be the finish rank of the most recent round.

Example: Driver Y and Driver Z both have 212 points at the end of the season, Driver Y finished 14th and Driver Z finished 13th in the most recent round. Driver Z will be ranked above Driver Y.

Finishing Rank is determined by sorting the bracket position number.

Example: Driver Y and Driver Z both get knocked out in the Top 8, Driver Y had a bracket position of 8th and Driver Z had a bracket position of 29th. Out of the drivers who got knocked out in Top 8, Driver Y will be sorted into a higher position than Driver Z.

In the event that competition cannot be completed, such as a rain-out or other circumstances, competition points will be allocated by the completed rounds of competition (Top 32, Top 16, Top 8, Top 4, Finals) and event ranking will be sorted by bracket position to determine the event ranking.

6. PRIZE MONEY AND AWARDS
